MACER FLORIDUS.

Two damaged parchment leaves of a MS. of the medieval Latin herbal known as Macer Floridus, in double columns, containing 288 hexameter lines, which correspond (fol. 6) to chs. 65-73, Piper-Costus, and (fol. 7) to chs. 36, Caulis, 34, Bugloss, 38, Origani- num, 46, Asarum, in Pictorius's ed., printed at Basel, 1559 (no. 5100). The rest of the volume is blank paper.
null
Labeled a book in 1928.
Previously unidentified.